

TMC CommunityMatters invites you to a workshop with

Rangi Davis

Tuesday 7th November 7.30pm at TMC

TOPIC:

He aha te mea nui,
he tangata, he tangata,
he tangata

What is the greatest gift on earth
it is a human being

Rangi Davis is a mother of seven grown children and twenty-two mokopuna. Born to strong fluent Maori speaking women, and grounded in nature. Tikanga Maori and Christianity has been the base of her groundedness.

Having a deep appreciation for nature and natural elements through a Maori world view, a strong sense of values both Maori and Pakeha along with creative initiatives holds dear to her heart. Strengthening wahine leadership for the sake of her whanau, community, hapu and iwi is a strong calling.

Rangi and her husband were the first pilot house parents for Hato Petera College Boarding students, and worked voluntarily for nearly thirty years. She gained a university degree of youth skills from Hato Petera College.

Other professional development includes:

- 5 University papers studying theology
- Level 1&2 Counselling certificate, Diploma in Psychosynthesis MNZAC
- Diploma in Adult Tertiary Teaching at AUT
- Diploma in Matauranga Maori. 1 year course at Te Wananga o Raukawa
- Mercy Leadership Pilgrimage in Ireland
- Certificate in Leading Mental Health Promotion
- Te Reo Development Tauihu and Taurapa Certificates with Te Ara Poutama

Come along and explore a wairua journey with Rangi. She will introduce you to Te Ao Maori, with simple whakawhanaungatanga, storytelling, waiata and build on the gifts and talents that come to the evening.
